

Welcome to the sixth update on the Learning & Development National Occupational Standards Review.

The Open Consultation on the draft National Occupational Standards and the proposed Qualifications structure closes this Friday 4th December at 5pm.

To ensure you don't miss out on the opportunity to make your thoughts known and to help shape the new Standards please click on this E-Consultation link to download the documents and find the links to the online surveys to help submit your feedback on both documents.

The latest Project Factsheet is still available for download and use within your organisations and networks.

We continue to be keen to ensure we work with as many interested parties as possible and we would encourage you to forward this update onto any of your relevant colleagues, contacts and networks with an interest in the Learning and Development National Occupational Standards Review.

If you have any further questions please contact the project team - details can be found on the webpage: Learning and Development National Occupational Standards.

Thank you for your interest in this work and we look forward to your continued input over the coming months.
